Headline:
Brightening up, but showers becoming more widespread and locally heavy.

Today:
After a cloudy start, it should brighten up through the morning. However, scattered showers in the west will become more widespread and locally heavy and thundery during the afternoon. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers gradually easing through the evening, with most parts becoming dry after midnight. With light winds, a few mist or fog patches are possible by dawn. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tuesday:
Some bright or sunny spells, but with scattered showers across the region by afternoon. Showers again possibly heavy and thundery, but tending to ease during the evening. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Sunshine and locally heavy showers on Wednesday. Much of Thursday dry and bright, but wind and rain by evening. Windy on Friday with showers or some longer spells of rain.
